THE BIBLE VS. SLAVERY.

EDITOR INDEPENDENT:—In conversation with a gentleman not long since, on the subject of slavery, he said the relation between master and slave was not sinful, for the Bible upheld it. I stated, on the contrary, that the Bible did not, according to my view of slavery and the Bible. I will now proceed to reason from my stand point.

The enslaving of persons is reducing them to articles of property, making free agents chattels; converting persons into things, sinking intelligence, accountability and immortality into merchandise. A slave is held in this condition. In law he owns nothing, and can acquire nothing. He is a mere tool for another's use and benefit. His right to himself is abrogated—he is another's property. If he says, my hands, my feet, my body, my mind, or myself are mine, they are figures of speech. To use himself for his own good is a crime—to keep what he earns is stealing—to take his own body into his own keeping is insurrection—in a word the profit of his is the end of his being, and he is a means to that end, a mere means to an end into which his master does not enter—of which they constitute no part. Look at it! Man sunk to a thing—the intrinsic element, the principle of slavery is this: Men, women and children are sold, bartered, leased, mortgaged, bequeathed, invoiced, shipped in cargoes, packed as goods, taken on execution and knocked off at public outcry. Their rights are another's convenience.

I repeat it, the bible does not sanction slavery, but is opposed to it in spirit and letter. Will any one who is a friend to slavery please tell me what a slave can own? I say he cant own his conscience. His social affections, sympathies and hopes are marketable commodities. We repeat it, slavery reduces persons to things—not merely robbing a man of his privileges, but of himself—not loading with burdens but making him a beast of burden—not restraining liberty, but subverting it—not curtailing rights, but abolishing them—not inflicting personal cruelty, but annihilating personality—not exacting involuntary labor, but sinking him into an implement of labor—not abridging his human comforts, but abrogating his human nature.

This is not all: Slavery despoils a rational being of attributes uncreated.

Again, slaves can not be ranked among sentient beings, but among things. They are articles of property, chattels personal, in the hands of the owner and his executors, administrators to all intents, constructions and purposes whatever. The master might sell him, dispose of his person his industry, or his labor for the slave can do nothing, possess nothing but what must belong to his master. This was American slavery. The eternal distinction between a person and a thing is trampled under foot. The crowning distinction of all others, their center and source, the test, the measure of all their value, the rational, immortal principle enbalmed by God in everlasting remembrauce, the gift of God, his spirit, his word, all tell me that slavery is one of the greatest crimes that can be committed against God and man.

Having stated the principle of American slavery, I ask, does the bible sanction such a principle? I answer no. Now to the law and the testimony as given by God. Just after the Israelites were emancipated from their bondage in Egypt, while they stood before Sinai to receive the law, as the trumpet waxed louder, and the mount quaked and blazed, God spake the ten commandments from the midst of clouds and thunderings, and those commandments deal death to slavery. Look at the eighth—it reads thus: "Thou shalt not steal," or, thou shalt not take from another what belongs to him. Now, I say all man's powers of body and mind are God's gifts to him. They are his own and he has a right to them. This is proved from the fact that God has given them to him alone and not to another; that each of them is a part of himself, that all of them together constitute himself. All else that belongs to man is acquired by the use of these powers. Yes, the interest belongs to him because the principle does. The product is his, because he is the producer. I would have my friends to know that ownership of anything is ownership of its use, the right to use according to will is itself ownership. A man's right to himself is the only right absolutely original and intrinsic. His right to whatever else be longs to him is merely relative to his right to himself, is derived from it, and held only by virtue of it. Self right is the foundation of right, the post in the middle, to which all other rights are fastened. The slaveholder in making out his title to himself makes out the title of every human being to himself. The whole human family have but one title deed. If one man's title is valid, all are valid, if one is worthless all are. To deny the validity of one slave's title is to deny the validity of his owner, and yet in the act of making a man a slave the slaveholder asserts the validity of his own title, while he sells him as his property, who has the same title again in making him a slave. He does not merely dehumanize one individual, but universal man. Slavery destroys the foundation of all mankind—it annihilates all rights, and attacks not only the human race, but rushes upon Jehovah, for rights are rights; God's are no more, man's no less. The eighth commandment forbids the taking of anything that belongs to another. Slavery takes the whole. I ask, does the same bible which forbids the taking of anything belonging to a man, sanction the taking of everything? I ask, is it such a medley of absurdities as to thunder wrath against him who robs his neighbor of one cent, while it bids Godspeed to him who robs his neighbor of himself? Slavery is the highest violation of the eighth commandment. To take from a man his earnings is theft, but to take the earner is compound speculative thieft. It is to be a thief by profession—it is a trade, a life of robbery that breaks all the commandments of God at a leap—the dread giant robber that towers above all other robbers. The eighth commandment forbids the taking away, and the tenth adds, "thou shalt not covet anything that is thy neighbor's." Thus guarding every man's right to himself and his property, by not only the actual taking away a sin, but even the state of mind which would tempt to do it.

I asked my friends, who ever made human beings slaves or held them as slaves without coveting them? Again, I ask, why do they take from them their time, their labor, their liberty, their right of self-preservation and improvement, their right to acquire property, to worship according to conscience, to search the scriptures, to live with their families, and their right to their own body? Why do they take them, if they do not desire them? They covet them for purposes of gain, convenience, lust of dominion, of sensual gratification, of pride, and ostentation, and thus they break the tenth commandment. The giving of the law at Sinia immediately preceded the promulgation of that body of laws and institutions called the Mosaic system. Over the gateway of that system fearful words were written by the finger of God. He that stealeth a man and selleth him, or if he be found in his hands he shall surely be put to death. Exodus 21, 16. The oppression of the Israelites in Egypt, and the wonders wrought for their deliverance, proclaim the reason for such a law. At such a time when the body politic became so corrupt and while the slaves of Egypt waited for the law of God. They had just been emancipated. The tragedies of their hours of bondage which were the realities of yesterday peopled their memories with thronging horrors. They had just witnessed God's testimony against oppression in the plagues of Egypt. The burning blains of man and beast, the dust quickened into loathsome life, and cleaving in swarms to every living thing; the streets, the temples, and every house heaped up with the carcases of things abhored; the pestilence walking in darkness and at noon day; the first born stricken, and last of all that dread high hand and stretched out arm that whelmed the monarch and his host, and strewed their corpses in the sea. I state again, it is said in the bible that God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him. Well might the sons of God cry all together, Amen, alleluia, thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive blessings, and honor; for thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honor; thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet. O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth. Psalms, 8. 5, 6, 9.

What an enumeration of particulars! each separating indefinitely, man from brutes and things. Although God has made him a little lower than the angels, slavery drags him down among brutes. Thou hast crowned him with glory and honor; slavery tears off the crown and puts on a yoke. I am told the bible sanctioned the buying and selling of slaves, for says my friends, God directed the Israelites to buy their servants which were their slaves. It is argred that they were property, and the sole ground for this belief is the term buy and bought with money; and such terms when applied to servants is assumed, not only in the absence of all proof, but in the faced evidence to the contrary. For bible saints bought their wives. Boaz bought Ruth; so Ruth, the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife; Ruth 4, 10. Hosea bought his wife: So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for a homer of barley and an half homer of barley. Hosea 3, 2. Jacob bought his his wives Rachel and Leah, and not having money he paid for them in labor seven years apiece. Gen 15, 29. Now, if buying servants among the Jews showed that they were property, then buying wives showed that they were property. The word in the original used to describe the one describes the other. Do these gentlemen contend that the wives of the ancient fathers of the faithful were their chattels? Surely professors of religion now are bound to buy and hold their wives as property. Refusing so to do is to question the morality of those good old trading patriarchs such as Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, with the prophets and a host of whom the world was not worthy.

Now, Mr. Editor, I hope you and your readers will pardon me for my article. I know it is very long, but to say what I wished to say I could not consistently make it shorter.

Yours, for a reply and the full triumph of liberty over slavery.

WM. F. HOLLIDAY.

DEATH BY ALCOHOL IS MURDER.

If penal legislation be justified in any case, why not in this to which we seek to direct it? What is there to exempt in this case? If it be penal to kill your neighbor with a bullet, why should it not be penal to kill him with the bowl? If it be penal to take away his life by poison, which does its work in six hours, why not penal to do so by one that takes six years for its operation? Would you not measure the guilt of an act by the amount of suffering it causes? If, then, that which we work against, causes tenfold suffering should not its punishment be tenfold in severity? Alcohol produces ten times the amount of suffering that arsenic does. The latter destroys life in a few brief hours of agony, and its work is done; but the agony caused by alcohol, extended over months and years, torments its victim with more than tenfold cruelty. Arsenic takes away animal life merely; it touches not the soul; while alcohol not only gives ten times the amount of animal suffering but also destroys the soul, sapping all moral feeling, quenching all intellectual light. Therefore, I ask more severe punishment for that crime which works the moral and immortal ruin than for that whose touch ever turns a mere tenemant of clay.—Rev. John Pierpont.

SWEDISH NIGHT AND DAY.

The peculiarities of night and day in Sweden strike the traveler very forcibly, after being accustomed to the temperate zones. In June the sun goes down in Stockholm a little before ten o'clock. There is a great illumination all night, as the sun passes round the earth toward the north pole, and the refraction of its rays is such that you can see to read at midnight without any artificial light.

There is a mountain at the head of Bothie, where, on the 21st of June, the sun does not appear to go down at all. The steamboat goes up from Stockholm for the purpose of conveying those who are curious to witness the phenomenon. It occurs only one night. The sun reaches the horizon, you can see the whole face of it, and in five minutes more it begins to rise.

At the north cape, latitude seventy-two degrees, the sun does not go down for several weeks. In June it would be twenty five degrees above the horizon at midnight. In the winter the sun disappears and is not seen for weeks; then it comes and remains for ten or fifteen minutes, after which it descends, and finally does not set at all, but makes almost a circle, round the heavens. The Swedes are very industrious, and labor is reckoned by the hour, twelve hours being reckoned a day's work. Birds and animals take their accustomed rest at the usual hour, whether the sun goes down or not.

INDEPENDENT.

MARRIED—April, 1870, the Phrenological Journal and Packard's Monthly. Each of them has a world wide reputation, and to us the first named has been familiar from its earliest commencement, some thirty years ago, when it made its debut in Philadelphia. Now it is one of the world's successful instructors, and has long been such. Packards life has been much shorter, but has ever been full of interest. This combination establishes a strong firm, and it has nothing to do but to go on conquering and to conquer error and wrong. $3 a year. S. R. Wells, publisher, N. Y.

Harper's Magazine for April is received. The public who reads knows this monthly so well that any attempt to describe it is futile. Suffice it to say this number equals any which have preceded it.

Harper's Weekly of a recent date contains a very expressive delineation of some of the horrors of drunkenness in a well drawn picture. All who see it cannot but realize its truthfulness. Every toper of greater or less degree should see it—it should force him to reform.

G. S. NEWCOMB & Co., of Cleveland have changed the form of their excellent monthly, The Printing Gazette, and it is now an elegantly printed quarto of 16 pages. Printers in this part of the country have reason to be proud of this advocate of their interest and instructor in their art.

The Printers Circular, published by R. S. Menamin, of Philadelphia, has just commenced its fifth year. This medium of the craft is national in its character, and well deserves this high position. Its contents are always good reading for typographers.

HURD & HOUGHTON of New York have sent forth their beautiful magazine with the poetic title, Riverside. for April. Its contents commend it to all who love the useful and attractive.

Arthur's Magazine and the Children's Hour for the coming month keep up their excellent reputation for good, moral instruction in their original and selected articles. Philadelphia, Pa.

BRAIN FOOD.

Some of our modern wise ones have had considerable to say, lately upon the various kinds of food which particularly nourish or supply the waste of the brain. That the labors of the brain are exhausting to the animal economy is very true; still the experience of the most studious has proved that it is not so much the intensity of the study as the length of time spent in it, and the neglect of relaxation, that produce the exhaustion.

We need no better proof of this than is furnished in the case of Sir Isaac Newton. No man has studied more intensely than he did; and few have lived to be octogenarians with so little sickness.

German students generally study more hours than we do, and yet break downs are more seldom found among them than with us. The reason of this is, they take better care of the body for the sake of the mind—of the house because of the tenant that lives in it. The fact is, more rust than wear out.

That the brain is affected both by the quality and quantity of the food and drink, like other parts of the body—yea, more, in proportion to the amount of blood it contains, no pysiologists will deny. But that certain kinds of food—say fish and milk, as some have maintained—are specially adapted to repair the exhausted brain, has never been demonstrated, and like many statements of half-fledged geologists, should be received with many grains of salt.

The best and the only safe way to preserve the brain, and every other organ of the body is to eschew alcohol and all narcootic poisons, eat temperately as has been found by experience to agree with the stomach, avoid late suppers and night study, and sleep as much as nature requires.—Good Health.

I WORKED, AND EARNED IT.

A few weeks ago, a gentleman living in an eastern town was called out of bed one morning by several vigorous raps upon his front door. Hastily dressing himself, he responded to the call, and found standing upon the step an uncouth, roughly clad boy, with an axe on his shoulder, who hastily thrust his hand into his partaloons pocket, drew out a small roll, and handing it to judge H——, said:

'There's seventy-five dollhrs which I want you to put in the savings bank,' and hastily turned on his heel and started away.

The Judge, slightly disconcerted at the curious proceedings, scarcely knew what to say, till at length, recovering his wits, he cried out after the boy.

'Stop! come back here. How did you come by this money?'

'I worked, and earned it, sir. My time was out last night, and I got my money. I've got a job chopping, which I began on this morning, and I thought I'd leave the money with you as I went to work, and then it would n't take up my time this evening when I want to study.'

'What is your name, my boy?' asked the Judge.

'I wrote it on the paper that I wrapped the money up in,' shouted the little woodchopper as he passed on to his work.

That boy's note for a thousand dollars due ten years hence would be as good as gold. If he has his health, he will be worth double that then.

He is beginning in the right way. The very day his time was out for the summer, he entered upon another job, and immediately placed the money he had worked for where that would work for him; and with an economy of time which is more to be praised than his wise forethought with regard to money, he could not endure to have a moment devoted to anything but his books when the long evenings came.

Five years from to day, with a good education, with good habits, with a few hundred dollars, which he has earned by work, his chances for place in the business and political world will be far greater than those of the spendthrift boy, who, born with fortune, begins without knowing the worth of money, and instead of going up, goes down.—Hearth and Home.

EPITOMIZED HISTORY OF STEAM.

About two hundred and eighty years B. C., Hies, of Alexandria, formed a toy which exhibited some of the powers of steam, and was moved by its power.

A. D. 450. Anthemius, an architect, arranged several caldrons of water, each covered with the wide bottomm of the leather tube, which rose to a narrow top with pipes extended to the the rafters of the adjoining building. A fire was kindled beneath the caldrons, and the house was shaken by the efforts of the steam ascending the tubes. This is the first notice of the power of steam recorded.

In 1543, June 17, Blasco D. Garoy tried a steamboat of 200 tons with tolerable success at Barcelona, Spain. It consisted of a caldron of boiling water under a movable wheel on each side of the ship. It was laid aside as impracticable. A present, however, was made to Garay.

In 1690, the first railroad was constructed at Newcastle on Tyne.

The first idea of a steam engine in England was in the Marquis of Winchester's History of Inventions, A. D. 1663.

In 1710, Newcomer made his first steam engine in England.

In 1718, patents were granted to Savery for the first application of the steam engine.

In 1764, James Watt made the first perfect steam engine in England.

In 1766, Jonathan Hull's set forth the idea of steam navigation.

In 1773, Thomas Paine first proposed this application in America.

In 1781, Marquis Jouffoy constructed one on the Saone.

In 1785, two Americans published works about it.

In 1789, William Tymington made a voyage in one on the Forth of Clyde Canal.

In 1802, this experiment was repeated.

In 1782, Ramsey, propelled a boat by steam to New York.

In 1788, John Fitch, of Philadelphia, navigated a boat by a steam engine on the Delaware.

In 1793, Robert Fulton, first began to apply his attention to steam.

In 1793, Oliver Evans, a native of Philadelphia, constructed a locomotive steam engine to travel on a turnpike road.

The first steam vessel that crossed the Atlantic was the Savannah, June 1817, from Charleston to Liverpool.

The great change, both political, civil and social that has been wrought in this country within the past ten years, is most forcibly illustrated in the following short paragraph which we clip from a late number of Harper's Weekly. It pertinently says: "John Brown's body has lain mouldering in the grave but a little more than ten years, when the slaves in Virginia unite in asking congress to remove the political disabilities of the late slave masters defeated in rebellion! It is a magnanimity and sagacity that contrasts well with the sullen folly of the democratic party, which would make the colored citizens political outlaws. His soul goes marching on."

ANECDOTE OF HENRY CLAY.

The writer of this, who in 1806 was an apprentice to the bricklaying business, was engaged in building Mr. Clay's house of Ashland; and while most mechanics, in those days, were, by the wealthy treated but little better than negroes. I shall never forget his respectful treatment towards his workmen, whom he seemed to consider as equals, and fared as well as his own family.

I remember one day that an old revolutionary soldier, who was a stranger there, had got drunk, and fell down before Mr. Clay's gate where he lay in a perfectly senseless state like a brute, and as there was a storm coming up, some one mentioned the fact to Mr. Clay. He immediately went to the old man, and with his own hands dragged him into his own house and had him washed, cleaned up, and put to bed. The next morning during breakfast, Mr. Clay addressed the old man in the most affectionate and touching manner, telling him that such was the reverence he felt for all those who had fought for our liberties, that he could not bear to see them lessen that respect by getting drunk. That he could not but feel an everlasting gratitude towards him, and all others, who had purchased, at so dear a rate the liberties, which we all enjoy; that he would not object to an old soldier taking an occasional dram, but he begged him for his own sake, and for the sake of others who had won our liberties never to get drunk again. He then gave the old man some money, and sent him home to his friends.

Mr. Clay's sympathy and kindness for the errors of this old revolutionary soldier, will never be forgotten by an old Bricklayer.—Cincinnati Atlas.

Gerrit Smith refers to the action of those temperance men who cling to rum parties, in a forcible and plain manner. He avers that one reason why earnest temperance men can consent to cling to a party, though it shall never cease to sustain the dramshop, while at the same time, they would instantly and indignantly refuse to belong to one, which should sanction the comparatively petty crime of theft, is that whilst they are unused to seeing well meaning and respectable men amongst thieves, they are used to seeing them, here and there, amongst dramsellers.

'Dan, said a little four year-old 'give me a sixpence to buy a monkey.'

'We've got one monkey in the house, now,' replied his brother.

'Who is it, Dan?' asked the little fellow.

'You,' was the reply.

'Then give me a sixpence to buy the monkey some nuts.'

The brother could not resist.

Jones met Smith as he was going on board a steamer on the Mississippi, and asked:

"Which way, now, Smith, up or down?"

"That depends upon circumstances," remarked the latter; 'if I get a berth over the boiler I shall probably go up; if in the cabin, down."

Dr. C. W. Roback—Sir: I feel anxious to tell to the world the wonderful benefit I have received from the Scandinavian blood purifier and pills. I have been troubled with dyspepsia for about thirty years, and in that time I have suffered enough to kill ten men. I have employed all the doctors in this part of the country, but they were of no use to me. I have used almost everything in the line of patent medicines, but all for no good, until I got some of your medicines of your agents, Messrs. Fulton & Clark, since which I feel like a new man. God bless you—may they always do as much good as they have done me. J. W.

Massillon Independent.

VOL VII---NO. 40 · MASSILLON, OHIO, MARCH 30, 1870. WHOLE NUMBER, 352.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

The Independent.

Two Dollars a year, in advance.

Massillon, Wednesday, March 30.

From all accounts it seems that the New York democracy are in trouble. In playing the rascal, both wholesale and retail, they seem to have overdone the work, and are now quarreling among themselves. We hope they will keep up a vigorous, healthy warfare, for when rogues fall out, it is reported that honest men get their dues.

A few days ago an effort was made in the house of representatives of this state to bring a constitutional amendment before the people, which allows women suffrage, but it was lost by a vote of 54 to 51 in favor of the measure. When it comes that near, lacking but a few votes of success, we may be sure that the reform will not stop at such a defeat. The Oberlin women's argument—or rather want of argument—is understood to have been one of the great reasons for this result.

France is not quiet. The Bonaparte who shot down Victor Noir, one of the editors of a free, out spoken paper, in that country, because he exercised the liberty of the press, was put through the forms of trial and notwithstanding the overwhelming evidence of his guilt, the jury rendered a verdict in his favor. It is inferred that the emperor dictated this verdict. This may quiet a portion of the people for a while, but there will be trouble yet, and the prestige of the name Bonaparte cannot always suppress it.

In the halcyon days of slavery, when the advocates of the peculiar institution were placed in a narrow strait for argument, they once in a while fell back on the great idea that some slave had said he preferred the position of chattlehood to manhood, and they played on it as if it were a harp of a thousand strings. But that is all past—played out, in modern parlance. Of course nobody claims or says that women are slaves in the sense that Africans were once held in this country, yet they are not invested with political rights, that many of both sexes claim they are entitled to. In this instance there is something approaching a parallel to those slaves who said they preferred oppression to freedom, for occasionally one or two women do protest against the women's rights movement. Just now great importance is attached to a protest signed by a number of the professors and preachers wives, of Oberlin. They simply say that they prefer their present position in a political sense, to a change in their favor. Nobody disputes their right of choice, but while they enjoy it, have not those women who dissent the same privilege of choice? Those distinguished Oberlin ladies are peculiarly favored in many respects, for none of them are allied to drunken, improvident and scallawag husbands, but all are blessed with the society of exemplary men, who stand high in a moral and religious sense. Well may they be satisfied, but what of those hundreds of thousands whose experience is entirely adverse to their's in every respect? They are continually subjected to the brutalities of intemperate men, and such is their position that they have no means of bettering it, so far as expressing their wishes effectively. While all due respect should be paid to the wishes of these few Oberlin women, is no regard to be had for the thousands of others in less fortunate positions? Notwithstanding these manifestations of opposition to this reform it is advancing, and will prevail.

Yesterday's papers state that General Thomas died at San Fricisco on Monday evening, of apoplexy. No further particulars. If true a great and good man has fallen.

The impression is, that our legislature will adjourn in a very few days—possibly this week. The drawback on it is, the same body is expected to meet again next winter. Why not try biennial sessions as the constitution requires? The state would not suffer from one experiment of the kind, and the move would be quite popular among a large majority of tax-payers.

Certain of the streets of Brooklyn, N. Y., had a strong taste of rotten whisky, on Monday, the U. S. officers with forces under their control spilling large quantities of the article on the ground. This was occasioned in consequence of the illicit nature of the distilleries at which the article was made. Such doings are materially interfering with the highest inspirations of the leading politicians of New York, and if continued will cause suffering and maybe death to the party.

Seven merchants from one street in Halifax were on the City of Boston going east to purchase spring goods.

Mr. Hoag, member of congress from the tenth Ohio district, died a few weeks ago, at Washington, and Gen. Hayes has ordered a special election to be held to fill the vacancy, on Monday next. The republicans have nominated a very capable and popular man, Dr. Peck, of Wood county, to fill the vacancy. The democrats held a convention, blocked out a platform, and nominated a Mr. Hill of Toledo. The republicans of the district charge that Mr. Hill is a good enough repudiationist to suit the party, but herein the democracy of Williams county differ from them. They held a separate convention, made a square out and out repudiation platform, and placed thereon an avowed repudiator. All Dr. Peck has to do is to stand still and be voted for—for although his calling is that of a healer, his election is sure. Let the repudiators, semi-repudiators, and demi semi-repudiators (if there are such) fight among themselves, for they can't injure their opponents in that district. It is an up Hill task to try to try to elect anybody who is not sound on the great political questions of the day.

It is said that Gov. Ashley, of Montana, who it was expected a month or two ago would be removed, and Gen. Potts, state senator of this district, take his place, will continue in his present position—not be removed. Of course Gen Potts will continue to represent this senatorial district at Columbus.

Miss Anna Dickinson lectured to a large audience at Steubenville one night last week. As a public speaker Miss D. has attained a popularity which is enjoyed by but few leading men or women in the country.

Bro. Lynch in his three years sojourn at Massillon made a large number of friends; and we are informed that the membership of his church here are a unit in their feelings of regard toward him. To them he has been a zealous, faithful and successful pastor, and it is with sincere regret that they are separated from him. But according to the usages of the church no minister can remain longer than three years in one place, and as Mr. L. has been here that length of time strong attachments were formed, which seemed to increase with time and acquaintance. In addition to his success as a preacher in the church, this community can bear testimony that he was ever faithful and often personally efficient in aiding the cause of temperance, in which behalf he never failed to plead on all befitting occasions. The sincere prayers of our community go with Bro. Lynch, who will long be remembered by his numerous friends in and about Massillon. We hope his successor may be welcomed with the best wishes of our people, and that his labors for good will be crowned with success.

A report reached here Monday evening or Tuesday morning that certain conference appointments were made as follows: Rev. Mr. Sinsabaugh, of Canton, is presiding elder of Canton district, Rev. W. Lynch goes to Salem—where he was some years ago—Rev. E. Hingsley, late of Steubenville, comes to Massillon, Rev. A. J. Endsly is located at Canton. Later news may change or confirm these reports.

Mr. Abrahams, architect, has made a fine drawing of the front of the new schoolhouse, to be erected this season in West Massillon. According to the draft this building will make a splendid appearance.

A HEAVY GOAK.

March, 28th 1870.

Mr. Editor:—On last Frida nite there was quite a num ber of the faithful democrats and a few scatterin people me in Madison Hall 2 nominate candydates for sity offices and after the meetin was called 2 order they proceed 2 nominate a candydate for mare which resulted in the choice of an old war horse that had served as justis of the peice in this town ever since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary and a year or 2 ago moved out in to Tuscarawas township and resets there yet—semart preys. The next day when they got threw there semart heads wat they had done there faces got as long as tellegraff polls.

Mr. Editor please announce my name as a suitable person for candydate for the sity of Canton and oblige Lawrence township. With good intenshins,

I remain yours

Delirium Tremins.

The democratic paper at Eugene, Oregon, wails thus: "How long, oh God, how long shall the eyes of the white people of the United States be closed to the hellish iniquities of their oppressors? When will the spirit of Tell and Winkelried rise like a Phœnix from the ashes of our liberties, and swear on their blades, if necessary, that America shall be a white man's country?" Echo answers, "Bosh!"

Daniel Pratt entered an editor's room recently, down east, and announced himself in the usual way, 'I am the great American traveler.' 'Well, travel,' said the prompt and undismayed editor.

PLANTATION BITTERS

S. T.—1860—X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid, it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits. THE AMERICAN FAMILY Knitting Machine

Is presented to the public as the most simple, durable, compact and cheap knitting machine ever invented.

PRICE ONLY $25.

This machine will run either backward or forward with equal facility; makes the same stitch as by hand, but far superior in every respect.

Will Knit 20,000 Stitches in one Minute.

and do perfect work leaving every knot on the inside of the work. It will knit a pair of stockings in less than half an hour. It will knit close or open, plain or ribbed work, with any kind of course or fine woolen yarn, or cotton, silk or linen. It will knit stockings with double heel and toe, drawers, hoods, sacks, smoking caps, comforts, purses, muffs, fringe, afghans, nubias, undersleeves mittens, skating caps, lamp wicks, mats, suspenders, wristers, tidies, tippets, tufted work and in fact an endless variety of articles in every day use, as well as for ornament.

From $5 to $10 per Day can be made by any one with the American Knitting machine, knitting stockings, &c., while expert operators can even make more, knitting fancy work, which always commands a ready sale. A person can readily knit from twelve to fifteen pairs of stockings per day, the profit on which is not less than forty cents per pair.

FARMERS

can sell their wool at only forty or fifty cents per pound; but by getting the wool made into yarn at a small expense, and knitting it into socks, two or three dollars per pound may be realized. On receipt of $25 we will forward a machine as ordered.

We wish to procure active agents in every section of the United States and Canadas, to whom the most liberal inducements will be offered. Address, AMERICAN KNITTING MACHINE CO., Boston, Mass., or St. Louis, Mo.

The Great Medical Discovery!

Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS.

More than 5-0,000 persons bear testimony to their curative effects.

For Female Complaints, whether in old or young, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these tonic bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

What are They?

They are a gentle purgative as well as a tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving congestion or inflamation of the liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

THEY ARE NOT A

FILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of poor rum, whisky, proof spirits, and refuse liquor, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called tonics, appetizers, restorers, &c., that lead the tipler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all alcoholic stimulants.

They are the great blood purifier and life giving principle, a perfect renovater and invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell.

$100 will be given for an incurable case, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For inflamatory and chronic rheumatism, and gout, dyspepsia, or indigestion, bilious, remittent, and intermittent fevers, disease of the blood, liver, kidneys and bladder, these bitters have been most successful. Such diseases are caused by vitiated blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the digestive organs.

Cleanse and vitiate blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions or sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when you find it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, tape, and other worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

In bilious, remittent and intermittent fevers, these bitters have no equal. For full directions read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

Patent Broadcast Seed Sower,

FOR SOWING

Wheat, Oats Hemp, Barley, Rye, Buckwheat, Grass Seed, Rice, Flax, &c.

The Hand Machine Costs only $10.

And sows from four to eight acres per hour at a common walking gait, throwing out wheat about forty feet wide.

The Horse Power Machine Costs Only $50

And at the usual walking gait of a horse, sows from ten to fifteen acres per hour By changing the discharger this machine sows Guano, Plaster, Lime, &c.

The hand machine, at a common walking gait, sows from four to eight acres per hour. The acknowledged superiority of these machines over all others has already placed them in the front rank of labor saving agricultural implements. A saving of four fifths of the labor, and one third of the seed used in hand sowing, is effected by using these machines. A person entirely unused to sowing by hand can use either machine with perfect success.

They are warranted to give perfect satisfaction, and to save their cost in less time than any farm implement yet introduced. They are substantially built, and with ordinary care will last many years.

D. H. GOODELL & CO.,

SOLE MANUFACTURERS.

Antrim, New Hampshire.

The unprecedented success of this Seeder the past year is without parallel in the history of agricultural implements. It has probably received more first premiums at large fairs in the year 1869, than was ever awarded to any other machine, of any name or nature in one year.

It received the first premium at the great fair held at St. Louis, and at the New England fair held at Portland, Maine, and at the New York, Maryland, North Carolina, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Mississippi, and California State Fairs, and at multitudes of smaller fairs all over the country.

We warrant the hand machine to sow Fifty Acres of Wheat in Ten Hours, and the horse power machine to sow One Hundred and Twenty Acres in the same time, and the work to be done with greater precision and accuracy than can be done by agy other means whatever.

We might append hundreds of certificates, speaking its praise in the highest terms.

Tobias' Derby condition powders are warranted superior to any others or no pay, for the cure of distemper, worms, bots, coughs, hide-bound, colds, &c., in horses, and colds, coughs, loss of milk, black tongue, horn distemper, &c., in cattle. These powders were formerly put up by Simpson I. Tobias, son of Dr. Tobias, and since his death the demand has been so great that Dr. Tobias has continued to manufacture them. They are perfectly safe and innocent; no need of stopping the working of your animals. They increase the appetite, give a fine coat, cleanse the stomach and urinary organs, and increase the milk of cows. Try them and you will never be without them. Col. Philo P. EDITOR.

Athens, Athens Co., O., August 10, 1869.

Dr. C. W. Roback,

Dear Sir:—Permit me to say in relation to your Scandinavian Blood Pills and Blood Purifier, that I have used several boxes and bottles, and have found their effects on my system to be all that is claimed for them in your advertisements. I have also seen the effects of your Pills upon a child four or five years old, in expelling worms from the bowels.—One dose given the child, confined to the bed, and apparently very sick, caused the worms to come away from it in great numbers, and they were found crawling and scattered all about. The child thus relieved recovered immediately, and is now well and hearty.

Yours, &c.

Domestics, ginghams 12½ cents at Humberger & Son's.

Our venerable father Saxton, now nearing his four score, who has been connected with the press of Stark county for 55 years, last week published a brief account of the commencement and progress of his experience in the Rep and Rep, which has been read with no little interest by many. Notwithstanding his great age, Mr. S. is yet able to work at the case, write editorials and perform other active duties required about a printing office. This vigor and tenacity of life and health are due to sober, temperate habits, as he was originally blessed with a good constitution. Printers generally go off comparatively young, but Mr. Saxton is yet in existence with the third generation since his beginning of active life. He bids fair to outlive many of the craft who are scarce out of their teens. He is the oldest printer and publisher who has been connected continuously with one paper, in Ohio, if not in the entire country.

Now is the time to buy cheap woolens and cloths, coatings, cassimeres, &c. Ricks' have just received a new lot of these goods which they will sell cheap.

The nicest hoop skirts and corsets at Humberger & Son's.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Beckwith, Sterling & Co., Carpet Dealers, Cleveland. These gentlemen have one of the most extensive carpet establishments of the west, and we hope those in want of elegant carpets and fine curtains, will make a trip to Cleveland to see them.

It is gratifying to know that the new carriage establishment of this place, of Messrs. Walser & Grimmasey, has already received quite a number of orders for work, consisting of the plain, strong wagon to the elegant phaeton. As soon as possible they expect to be at work, and no fear but they will have plenty to do. One order now on hand is from Cleveland and another from Kansas.

When you need a new corset or hoop skirt go to Ricks' as they just received a new assortment which they are selling very cheap.

Go to Humberger & Son's and buy a carpet cheap.

New lot of bright colored zephyrs and Germantown wool at Humberger & Son's.

If you want to buy any shirtings go to Ricks' as they have a good assortment which they will sell at cheap prices.

Huntsman & Hackett have just been replenishing their establishment with a large and extensive assortment of furniture. Articles suited to the wants of all—rich or poor—are to be had at their crowded ware-rooms. Young people taking the responsibilty of life partnerships can find anything they wish to aid them in starting housekeeping, and the proprietors we are pleased to say, are frequently favored with such calls, as well as many others of a profitable character. Purchasers desiring to see anything really beautiful and elegant can't come amiss in the double H's establishment.

The rain storm which visited this vicinity on Saturday and Sunday terminated in a little snow on Monday morning with some wind. Down east a destructive snow and hurricane committed considerable depredations.

Go and buy some of those cheap delaines at Ricks'.

Kid gloves spring shades at Humberger & Son's.

The moving time of days has come—the saddest of the year—to many, if we may judge by the flittings to be seen on the streets.

Spring shawls—some very handsome—new styles at Bicks'—also a fine line of bright plaids for cloakings—go and see the goods.

Just received at Ricks' a large assortment of head switches and coils of the best quality.

Clarks O. N. T. spool cotton, $1 per dozen at Humberger & Son's.

According to numerous visible evidences on Main and Erie streets, on Sunday morning, some of the followers of Bachus had high daddy on Saturday night. Reveling and noises were going on in the small hours, which were heard in different parts of the city, thus disturbing the peace and quiet of good citizens. Barrels and boxes were brown about the streets, a grindstone belonging to Mr. Conrad was broken to pieces—the second one in a short time—signs torn down and demolished, and other depradations committed. The new sign put up in front of the Massillon American, also the sign in front of Mr. Durgin's jewelry store, were demolished. Whoever does this sort of mischief will some day meet with signal trouble, and they won't have much sympathy. Of course the perpetrators were ruffians, inspired by the spirit of perdition so freely flowing in some forty hell holes in the vicinity.

For quiet and comfort, cotton batting go to Humberger & Son's.

In a very few days we expect the new railroad to be ready for business, as we understand it is about finished. Mr. Perkins, president of the road, was in town a day or two ago. This event will have a tendency to stimulate business among us, as it has long been desired that direct communication be had with Cleveland.

The grand division of the Sons of Temperance will hold their semi-annual session at Akron, sometime toward the last of April. Our new railroad will make it convenient for those who wish to go there to be present.

There is more cents than sense in shoo fly when in is rightly shewn.

Those juvenile scallawags, it is said, who committed their depradations about town on Saturday night by destroying property, are reported as known, and have left town. If they don't stay away for a considerable time they may realize a warm welcome on their return. They need a course of legal training.

See Mr. Schafer's new advertisement in to-day's paper in regard to the Howe sewing machine. He has a very neat agency around there on Erie street, where customers can have their orders filled.

Pursuant to notice published in our last a large number citizens of Massillon convened at Madison Hall on last Friday evening. I B. Dangler was appointed chairman, and J. G. Warwick secretary. The object in coming together was to nominate candidates for borough offices, to be run at the election on the 4th prox. Thos. Blackburn was named for mayor; Councilmen—Edwin Bayliss, first ward; F. Willenburg, second ward; Th. Russell; third ward; J. H Justus, (one year) and L. Gise, (two years) fourth ward. Assessors—Joel Core, first ward; Charles Higginbotham, second ward; D. P. Merwin, third ward; Snyder, fourth ward.

It was imagined by some of our good people that spiritualism was about played out—annihilated in this vicinity, a few weeks ago, but the believers in this theory are not of that opinion. They are more than ever convinced that they are not in error, but claim to have new evidences that strengthen the principles they profess. Whether right or wrong these people are sincere, not lacking in intelligence, and all willing to test the religion they profess by the lives they lead. It is not well to condemn that which seems to be new, for if we stop to think a moment none of us are so advanced in knowledge but what we can learn something.

Rumors and counter rumors come to us invarious shapes from Mansfield concerning the terrible tragedy which took place there on Friday night the 18th inst. One report says the impression is being spread among the people of that city that Robinson, the man implicated with the crime, is not guilty; and another that almost positive proof of his guilt has been discovered in the fact that bloody clothes were found in his own house. In this state of uncertainty it is well to await the development of facts, for the truth will come out sometime or other. It is also said that before the murder was committed Robinson went to a grogshop—just the right place—and fortified himself for his bloody work before he entered upon it. If so, it is not the first murder of which these pests of society are more or less guilty. Crime and murder is their trade.

The constant rains of Saturday night, Sunday and since then have raised the roaring Tuscarawas so as to overflow the banks in some places.

The republican nominations took place on last Saturday, and resulted as follows: Mayor, B. B. Warner; Council—first ward, Geo. L. Russell; second ward, Adam Mong; third ward, F. Ruchti; fourth ward, ——; Assessors—first ward, D. M. Humer; second ward, Martin Schafer; third ward, C. H. Tinkler; fourth ward, D. O. Brown. Edwin Jarvis, justice of the peace.

The Buckeye of New Lisbon says that a firm is about to commence the manufacture of flax goods, at that place, are to erect machinery for that purpose. That is a fabric which should be much more extensively made than it now is, for it can be raised right at home, and its utility as an article of clothing is acknowledged everywhere.

The Schauf Bros. of this place, although quietly at work, are doing quite an extensive trade in the manufacture of caddies of all kinds. They have a large number of customers all over this region of country whom they supply with this nice class of saccharine goods. Having the requisite appliances they are prepared to fill orders at short notice, and on fair terms. Their establishment is on Factory street, south of Main.

Mr. H. Alterkruse, Main street, west of canal, issues his proclamation in to-day's paper, informing the citizens of Massillon that he is prepared to furnish groceries of all kinds. Having an extensive variety on hand he is prepared to supply the varied wants of such as may favor him with their patronage. His fine, new and elegant sign will indicate the locality of his grocery without fail. Call and see him, and his stock.

Bishop Thompson, one of the leading men in the M. E. church, died at Wheeling on the 22d inst., of pneumonia, after a very brief illness. His family, who live in Delaware, O, were not present at the time of his decease. Bishop T. was somewhat known in this part of Ohio, and had many friends even among those who were of other denominations. The vacancy thus occasioned by death will not probably be filled before 1872, at the next general conference.

About the going down of the sun last Friday evening the alarm of fire was raised by ringing of the bells. The fire department was out in force with their apparatus, all making their way to the southeast part of the city where a blazing fire was to be seen. On ascertaining the cause of the commotion it was found that somebody was burning brush or other waste material on the outskirts of the city, when quiet ensued.

Local politics is somewhat active here. A citizen's meeting, consisting of both parties, was held at Madison Hall Friday evening at which a ticket for municipal officers was nominated. Saturday the republicans held a primary election, at which another ticket was chosen, and to-morrow the democrats are to try their hand in making out a ticket. So the prospect is we shall have no lack of candidates on next Monday.

See history of yield of Norway oats and list of cash premiums offered for samples by Lewis Schilling, on page third of this paper.

It is reported here that Easter Sunday comes on the 17th of April. This is on almanac authority, and is not to be questioned. Easter is associated with eggs, this year at a pretty round price, say two cents apiece. If it is an imperative religious duty to eat eggs on that day, the great probability is, there will be some sinners about who will be guilty of the sin of omission. Most people like eggs, but some may not be able to afford the luxury.

Mr. Benjamin Doll and several other persons of this vicinity, recently went to California, perhaps to remain. Wm. Taylor has made a sale of his chattel property with the design of removing to Kansas.

The republican primary election, on last Saturday nominated the following ticket for township officers: Trustees—W. C. Richards, A. J. Humberger and Reuben Rush; Clerk, John B. Wert; Treasurer, Nahum S. Russell; Constables, Benjamin Raser, H. Hardgrove.

The little boys have been playing marbles, and some of the bigger ones have been fishing, which are decided indications of spring. Some people have gone into the preliminaries of gardening, and farmers began to plow their uplands. This waking up will, it is hoped, have a good effect in stimulating business.

Our old friend, Mr. C. F. Ricks, has for the last few weeks been on a visit to his son A. G. Ricks, who lives at Knoxville, Tennessee.

About these days the business of the land appraiser begins. In this city it will prove to be considerable of an undertaking, but the gentleman elected for that purpose is adequate to the task.

SCHOOL ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given to the qualified electors residing in Union School District, Number One, Perry township, Stark county Ohio, that they meet on Monday, April 11th, at the Union Schoolhouse in said district, being in the fourth ward of the city of Massillon at 7 o'clock, P. M., and then and there elect by ballot according to the constitution and laws of the state of Ohio, one person to serve as school director for three years in place of James Bayliss whose term of service will then expire, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said meeting. By order of the Board of Education SAMUEL C. BOWMAN Clerk.

RAMSDELL NORWAY OATS.

"The effort to extend the dominion of man over nature is the most healthy and most noble of all ambitions."—Bacon.

CASH PREMIUMS.

To the farmer who will deliver to me in good order, the largest yield of perfect stalks and heads, the growth from a single grain of the Ramsdell Oats; (root attached.) I will pay a

Cash premium of	$10 00	Sixth best sample	$5 00
Second best sample	9 00	Seventh best sample	4 00
Third best sample	8 00	Eighth best sample	3 00
Fourth best sample	7 00	Ninth best Sample	2 00
Fifth best sample	6 00	Tenth best sample	1 00

2d PREMIUM LIST.

For the largest and best filled head I will pay a cash premium of	$5 00
For second best sample	4 00
For third best sample	3 00
For fourth best sample	2 00
For fifth best sample	1 00

All persons who buy seed of me are allowed to compete for these premiums. All samples must be delivered previous to the tenth of September, 1870. All these premiums will be paid to somebody, and I want all the growers to compete for them. I shall be most happy to hand over the money in exchange for the sample.

History of the oats on hand—But a part of each lot remains.

Seed sown.	Area.	Yield.
2½ bushels	1½ acres	133½ bushels
1 bushel	⅛ acre	71¼ bushels
22 pounds	1/12 acre	57½ bushels
1½ bushels	1¼ acre	109½ bushels
5 bushels	unknown	326½ bushels
1 bushel	1/16 acre	126 bushels

I secured but ninety five bushels of the two last named. One farmer got seventy-five bushels of the 326½ bushel crop. He was just ahead of me, and I got the balance—only forty bushels. Reader, what do you think of that farmer, and the way I was ran off the track by him.

Mr. Ramsdell says,—It will take two or three years to supply the demand for seed, if all the crops are saved for seed. The majority of buyers who have called to make examination, are coming back for more seed. One man who bought two bushels came back for five bushels more; another man who bought two bushels came back for eighteen bushels more; another who bought four bushels has bought five bushels more; and one man who bought 20 bushels has bought 15 bushels more, and so on.

Send on your orders and I will fill them as promptly as possible; but by all means come yourself if you can. The seed I sell is guaranteed genuine.

LEWIS SCHILLING, SALEM, OHIO.

Mr. Ramsdell says in his late circular, "Buy only from persons of known responsibility, and see that they have our trade mark." Again he says, "Our register shows the name and address of every farmer who has ever bought seed of us, and we are in correspondence with them all." Every farmer who can is invited to call on me to examine Ramsdell's trade mark, and also several letters which have been received from him in reference to the Ramsdell Oats business.

As I have given my personal and close attention to all the seed which I send out, I believe that farmers will get cleaner and purer seed from me than can be bought anywhere else.

Farmers will see from the above history of the seed I have, that they can secure seed from crops which bear the evidence of GREAT SUPERIORITY.

In ordering you can take your choice of seed out of either of the crops, and if the seed is all gone of the crop you want I will make the next best selection for you. Send an order at once to LEWIS SCHILLING, Salem, O.

P. S.—I ship the seed in tight boxes and make no charge for the box. I have just published an interesting Norway Oats pamphlet which I send free to any address.

Frank Wilson, a young man who lives in West Massillon, while hunting for muskrats yesterday in a small boat, having a valuable gun along, accidentally upset at some distance from the shore, where the water was deep. HEALTH! BEAUTY!!

Strong, Pure and Rich Blood—Increase of Flesh and Weight—Clear Skin and Beautiful Complexion, SECURED to ALL.

RADWAY'S

Sarsaparillian Resolvent

HAS MADE THE MOST ASTONISHING CURES. SO QUICK, SO RAPID ARE THE CHANGES THE BODY UNDERGOES UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THIS TRULY WONDERFUL MEDICINE THAT

Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

Scrofula, Consumption, Syphilis, cancer and Skin Diseases, Mercurial, Rheumatism, Glandular diseases, Ulcers in the Throat, Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys, Bladder, and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumous discharges from the Ears, Erysipelas, Eruptive diseases of the Face, Sore Mouth, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Carbuncles, Tetter, Scurfiness, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Mercurial Inflammation, Old Sores, Ulcerations of the Womb, Ulcerations and Pain in the Back, Kidneys, and Bladder, Gravel, Stone in the Bladder, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are Brick dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with ropy lumps, like the white of an egg, or threads resembling white silk, or there is a morbid dark, bilious appearance, and white bone dust deposits, and where there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins. In all these conditions Radway's Sarsaparillian Resolvent, by the application of a few days, will prove a perfect and ready Relief to the spine and Small of the Back, and the Bowels required with one or two of Radway's Regulating Pills per day, will soon make a complete cure. In a few days, the patient will be enabled to hold and discharge his urine naturally, without pain, and the Urine will be restored to its natural clear, and amber or sherry color.

THE WASTES OF THE BODY are supplied with new, healthy, and vitalized blood, that flesh is sound structure. Hence all and any WASTES OR DISCHARGES, either MALE or FEMALE, of the Womb, Uterus, or other organs, whether Leucorrhœa, Sperm, or Errpt ile discharges, or every kind, or from violence of self abuse, from the Genital Organs, or Venereal disorders, or ulcers, or sores, these in the rapid process of RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN, are arrested, and the ruptured organs healed.

THE TRUE THEORY OF CURE.

RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT supplies the system through the blood, urines, sweats, and other secretions with Elements which it lacks making Flesh, Calorie and Fat making Ligaments, Muscle, Membranes are nourished, purified, and strengthened. In Repairing Waste, Restoring, and Purifying the Blood, the Diseases Decay and Corruption CONSUMPTION, WHITE SWELLING, DROPSY, SYPHILIS, CANCERS, TUMORS &c., are all of a scrofulous character, and as such, are within the curative range of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT!

1. That Scrofula, by whatever name designated, is the result of deposits from the blood, induced or caused by Chronic Inflammation. That those deposits take place when the blood is poor, weak, watery, and incapable of holding in solution its proper constituents, or from the presence of some virus or poison in the blood as Mercury, Calomel, Corrosive Sublimate, which is the Corrosive Chloride of Mercury or other agents, given in medicines and which enter largely in the common advertised Sarsaparillas, NOT ABSORBED OR CHANGED FROM THEIR NATURAL CONDITION.

2. That unless the repairs or nutriments are greater than the wastes, that decomposition and decay will supervene, and the powers of life become exhausted.

3. That the dying body cannot be sustained on any regimen of medication that exhausts the system, or fails to nourish the blood, the only medium through which the vital forces are preserved, and on which the growth of the body depends.

1. That Radway's Sarsaparillian Resolvent supplies a want never before possessed or known to exist in medicine, that this new found principle in Chemical science, which has been brought to such a perfect system of cure is exhibited as follows:

1. Its great power in assimilating the food in its first stage of distribution in the process of digestion, as chyme and chyle with the nourishing elements of blood, separating from these liquids refuse and inert qualities before they are taken up by the lacteals and formed into blood. Here we see that by its wonderful power it changes the system with the very essence or principle that forms the vital powers of the body, and its rich stream of life blood in its primitive and complete condition, supplies every atom of tissue material or element, out of which the vitals of disease is formed.

2. That, the blood thus prepared, and supplied with these nourishing properties, becomes strong, rich and healthy, and holds in solution its proper constituents, through the Sarsaparillian Resolvent, and repairs the wastes of the body with sound and healthy structures. Such is the wonderful power the Sarsaparillian Resolvent exerts on the blood and juices of the system, that no virulent humors or poisons will exist by which deposits are made.

3. The rapid by which the Sarsaparillian enters the circulation, and communicates its curative powers through the blood, Nerves, Brain, and other fluids secretions the several portions of each respective organ, establishing functional harmony throughout the system; through its action and power over the Secretions, the Liver secretes its natural or proper allotment of bile; the Skin sweats; the Kidneys treat; and the Lungs carbon; so that this wonderful medicine not only establishes health in the sick body, but preserves the system in health.

As we have shown the principle on which disease is formed, as well as the only sensible theory of cure, we claim that the system of cure of the Sarsaparillian Resolvent is unlimited, and that every disease that is of a chronic or constitutional or Organic Diseases, is, properly within its special range.

in this Medicine consists in the selection of ingredients containing curative and nourishing properties that supply the blood and general system with such elements long which, in a condition of disease and depravity, it is deficient of, together with the combination of the several ingredients that form the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT.

If the constituent of Oxygen was exhausted from the atmospheric air, life would become extinct. So, when the blood becomes exhausted of its vital constituents, it deposits its tubercles and diseased humors in the body, and the elements of decay and decomposition supervene.

Radway's Sarsaparillian Resolvent is to the blood and general system what OXYGEN is to the atmospheric air; it supplies the life principle, and enables the blood to hold in solution all its natural constituents.

DAILY CHANGES

take place, for as the Sarsaparillian increases the strength and purity of the blood, all deposits are diminished, and where there are tubercles formed in the lungs, the further deposits are arrested and those that are established or forming diseased, expelled, exhausted, or the portion of the diseased lung cicatrized, and the consumptive, scrofulous subject receives good, if not sound, health.

BLIND LADY CURED.

Gravel, Dyspepsia, Sore Legs, Bleeding from the Lungs, Cured.

Mr. GEORGE MORTIMER, a commercial traveller, in Canada West, writes us, under date of April 17, 1869, from Woodstock:

"The SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT is in great demand, and working wonders. Mr. HOAG, of Smallwoodville, merchant, told me of a case where a woman WAS BLIND, but, by the use of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT, can now see to read. She would give a certificate, but does not wish to be bothered with people writing. Hundreds call to see her. The cure is regarded as wonderful.

"Messrs. WHITE & SCOTT, principal druggists here, inform me of a person of note in such social standing—who for years was afflicted with DYSPEPSIA and GRAVEL, who has been entirely cured by RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT."

Mr. HOAG reports another case of Chronic Sore Leg, that resisted all other advertised medicines, cured by a few bottles of SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT.

"Mr. JONATHAN FREELAND, of Wylder Station, cured, by one bottle, of Bleeding from the Lungs, Night Sweats, Threatened Consumption.

"In every town I visit I hear of wonderful cures by the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT. For every kind of Humor, Sore, Skin Eruption, and all weakening discharges, the people use it, and become cured; so with Fits, Scrofula, White Swelling, Sore Heads and Eyes, Nose and Mouth, all kinds of Sores, this wonderful remedy acts so powerfully on the blood that all who take it become strong, sound, and healthy.

"GEO. G. MORTIMER.

Life is the Gift of God.

When we are sick this life is clouded, under a cloud, oppressed with humors. Experience has taught us certain means, which never fail for their removal. The child receives with his life the seeds of his death. It may take one, or a hundred years, before the seeds bear their sad fruit, but just as sure as the seeds of death ripen, life ceases. Purging is the grand safeguard, because that what fosters the seeds of death are taken away, expelled from the body.

Govern Yourself accordingly. Experience.

My child, aged five years, had scarlet fever and for five days had constant fever. By order of the doctor I gave her syrup of rhubarb; she took pearl's a pint, but her bowels continued closed. On the fifth day the doctor said her bowels must be opened or she would be lost. I proposed Brandreth's pills; to this he would not consent—saying she was too weak. I consulted with my husband, and we concluded to give her three pills. In about four hours they operated filling half full a common chamber. After that operation the fever left her, and she rapidly recovered. Reference, 206 Clermont Avenue, Brooklyn.

MEN WANTED!

Business Permanent and profitable—To act as salesmen and general superintendents, of sales in this county, also one in each of the adjoining counties, for steel plate engravings issued by the National Art Association, sold by subscription, so superior in design and execution that their sales are great during all seasons and times. Men must do business exclusively for us, not only receiving orders throughout portions of the country, but employ and superintend the sales of a number of salesmen. A few who do not wish to assume the responsibility of a superintendency will also be accepted to act as salesmen. Sample engravings are carried in a patent roller case. Frames are not generally used or sold by our salesmen. To strangers we give commissions on sales for the first sixty or ninety days, when from the business talent and energy manifested an equitable salary can be agreed upon, should such be preferred to remuneration by commission. School teachers, farmers, agents, mechanics, and other business and professional men can engage with great profit. Personal application preferred. If by letter, state age, present and previous business, former pursuits, explicitly stating whether a superintendency, or merely a situation as salesman is desired—what territory is preferred—the earliest day the engagement could commence, and if for less or longer term than [illegible] ration, &c

C. F. GALTON'S

DYSPEPSIA REMEDY.

In offering this remedy to the public, we feel confident that every statement we make in regard to its curative properties will be fully verified by all who avail themselves of it. The prescription has been used in this city nearly ten years, and has never failed to effect a permanent cure whenever used in accordance with the directions, and the patient has had sufficient strength of mind to abstain from rich and indigestible food for a short time. In case of Diarrhœa, Waterbrash, Constipation, and Nervous Headache, arising from indigestion, and all ailments which are produced from an abuse of that important organ, the stomach, it will afford permanent relief.

As an evidence that our statements can be fully relied upon, we refer the reader to the certificates below:

"For a number of years I was greatly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and although my stomach craved food, it would immediately cause me great distress, and in order to keep body and soul together I was frequently compelled to leave the table without being able to take any nourishment. By accident one day I became very much reduced in flesh, and was so weak that I was unable and could not attend to my business. My mind was in no better condition than my body, as I was constantly filled with the blackest and gloomiest of thoughts. I had all the best medicines and prescriptions to be had in board of, and some of these advised me to put my self out, but in a short time I dropped into my former condition.

"While suffering in this manner I heard of C. F. Galton's Dyspepsia Remedy, and concluded to try it. I had taken about a small bottle when I began to feel relief, and continuing to take it, I soon found particularly my self to be entirely free from the distressing pains after eating, and was able to eat three meals a day, and could relish my food. In a short time I was entirely cured of the Dyspepsia—I can therefore recommend it to any one suffering from that complaint.

"Respectfully yours, ANDREW J. NICHOLSON.

"Pittsburgh, March 20, 1869."

"This is to certify, that during the early part of the summer of 1868 my wife was much troubled with Dyspepsia. She had a severe pain in her side, her appetite was variable and she became very sallow. After having used two bottles of C. F. Galton's Dyspepsia Remedy, her appetite became good, she was relieved from the severe pain in her side and her complexion became natural, as well as white. I attribute to the use of C. F. Galton's Dyspepsia Remedy the restoration of my wife to health, and have no hesitancy in recommending it to all my friends and acquaintances. All that I can do to make this wonderful remedy known, you can rest assured will be done. JAMES A. SMITH.

"Pittsburgh, Pa."

If you are suffering do not hesitate to buy a bottle of C. F. Galton's Dyspepsia Remedy, and avail yourself of its curative properties

Medical Properties Possessed by

BELTZHOOVER'S

Dyspeptic Bitters

Are fully endorsed by the certificates of well known gentlemen who have tested their virtues. Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Ague, General debility, and similar diseases are totally eradicated from the system by their use, while as a blood purifier and appetizer, they are unsurpassed.

Dr S Beltzhoover, Scully & Co., the proprietors of these bitters, are manufacturing them exclusively at their establishment, No. 77 Third avenue, Pittsburgh, and are prepared to fill all orders that may be sent to them.

At this season of the year the human system is generally in a debilitated condition and a tonic is necessary for the preservation of health. The Dyspeptic bitters are strongly recommended for their tonical virtues, and many persons are deriving great benefit from their use. Those bitters are the best in the market, and are being generally adopted by our citizens.

HAIR RENEWER.

RESTORES GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR, PROMOTES ITS GROWTH, AND IS A SPLENDID DRESSING. TRY ONE BOTTLE AND THICKEN UP THE THIN LOCKS!

Is the only perfected and scientifically prepared preparation of its kind ever offered to the public, and has no competitor in merit. By its use GRAY HAIR is soon restored to its original youthful color and brilliancy, which is so much admired by all. Persons whose hair is thin or falling out will, by the use of our Renewer, soon see its good effects, as, by its tonic and stimulating properties the hair glands will be incited and the hair grow thick and strong again. In cases of Baldness it will create a new growth unless the follicles are destroyed. It is cooling, and allays all itching and irritation of the scalp. It does not stain the skin as do dyes, but makes the scalp white and clean. As a DRESSING it is the best and most economical preparation in the world, as its effects last so much longer. Send for our Treatise on the hair, free to all, by mail.

To Consumptives.

The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affliction and that dread disease, consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers his means of cure. To all who desire it he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for consumption, asthma, bronchitis, &c. The object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. PRAYER AND POTATOES.

A SERMON BY REV. J. T. P.

If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?—James II: 15. 16.

An old lady sat in her old arm chair,
With wrinkled visage and disheveled hair,
And hunger worn features;
For days and for weeks her only fare,
As she sat there in her old arm chair,
Had been potatoes.

But now they were gone; of bad or good
Not one was left for the old lady's food
Of those potatoes;
And she sighed, and said, 'What shall I do?
Where shall I send, and to whom shall I go
For more potatoes?'

And she thought of the deacon over the way,
The deacon so ready to worship and pray,
Whose cellar was full of potatoes.
And she said: 'I will send for the deacon to come;
He'll not mind much to give me some
Of a store of potatoes.'

And the deacon came over as fast as he could,
Thinking to do the old lady some good,
But never, for once, of potatoes:
He asked her at once what was her chief want,
And she, simple soul, expecting a grant,
Immediately answered 'Potatoes."

But the deacon's religion didn't lie that way;
He was more accustomed to preach and to pray,
Than to give of hoarded potatoes:
So, not hearing, of course, what the old lady said;
He rose to pray, with uncovered head,
But she only thought of potatoes.

He prayed for patience, and wisdom and grace,
But when he prayed 'Lord give her peace,
She audibly sighed, 'Lord give potatoes;'
And at the end of each prayer which he said,
He heard, or thought he heard in its stead,
That same request for potatoes.

The deacon was troubled; knew not what to do;
'Twas very embarrassing to have her act so
About 'those carnal potatoes;'
So, ending his prayer, he started for home;
But, as the door closed behind him, he heard a deep groan,
'O, give to the hungry, potatoes!'

And that groan followed him all the way home;
In the midst of the night it haunted his room.
'O, give to the hungry, potatoes!'
He could bear it no longer, arose and dressed,
From his well filled cellar taking in haste
A bag of the best potatoes.

Again he went to the widow's lone hut;
Her sleepless eyes she had not yet shut:
But there she sat in that old arm chair,
With the same wan features, the same sad air,
And entering in, he poured on the floor
A bushel or more from his goodly store.
Of choicest potatoes.

The widow's heart leaped up for joy,
Her face was haggard and wan no more.
'Now,' said the deacon, 'shall we pray?'
'Yes,' said the widow, 'now you may.'
And he kneeled him down on the sanded floor
Where he had poured his goodly store,

And such a prayer the deacon prayed;
As never before his lips essayed;
No longer embarrassed, but free and full,
He poured out the voice of a liberal soul,
And the widow responded a loud 'amen!'
But said no more of potatoes.
And would you, who hear this simple tale,
Pray for the poor, and praying prevail,
Then prefer your prayers with alms and good deeds.
Search out the poor, their wants and their needs;
Pray for peace and grace, and spiritual food,
But wisdom and guidance, for all these are good
But don't forget the potatoes.

A gentleman being asked by a clergyman why he did not attend evening prayer meeting, said he could not leave the children. 'Why, have you no servants?' 'Yes,' he replied, 'we have two servants, who keep the house and board us. We are allowed a few privileges.'

MRS. ALLEN'S

Hair Restorer & Zylobalsamum

Are so uniformly grateful and beneficial, that they are with justice called the natural strengtheners of the human hair. They are two entirely separate and distinct preparations, not to be used together at one time.

Mrs. Allen's Hair Restorer

Never fails to satisfy the most refined and cultivated. A guarantee goes with every bottle, that it will quickly restore gray or white hair to its original youthful beauty, gloss and color; after its use a few times the hair will grow thicker and stronger. It will stop its falling and induce a healthy and luxuriant growth. It is an exquisite hair dressing, agreeable, harmless and healthy. Entirely different from most other preparations for the hair, its composition and ingredients are nourishing, giving life and vigor to the Roots.

Mrs. Allen's Zylobalsamum

This exquisite preparation is free from any sediment, and is a toilet treasure. The urgent want of a simple Hair Dressing, for the youth of both sexes, first induced the manufacture of the Zylobalsamum, and the sale of it is perfectly immense, not only in this country, but in Europe.

EXTRACTS FROM A FEW LETTERS.

"Your Zylobalsamum is used by every member, young and old, of our family, and we consider it invaluable. Should any gray hairs appear, we shall try your Hair Restorer, which we hear very highly spoken of."

"Father and mother use your Hair Restorer, and are delighted with it. It soon restored their gray locks to their youthful color, but daughters and son still find in the Zylobalsamum all their hair requires."

From the Principal of one of our large Female Seminaries: "Your Zylobalsamum has been used for many years by myself and family, and is the favorite among our young ladies."

$30 Hinkley Knitting Machine.

The most perfect machine yet invented. Will widen and narrow, turn a heel, or point the toe. It will knit plain or ribbed. It will knit stockings, drawers, shirts, hoods, comforters, mittens. It is cheap simple and durable. It sets up its own work, uses but one needle, and requires no adjusting whatever. It will do the same work that the Lamb machine will do, and costs less than half as much, and has not the tenth part of the machinery to get out of order. Circulars, and samples mailed free on application. Agents wanted. All machines guaranteed.

This is no patent medicine humbug, gotten up to dupe the ignorant and credulous, nor is it represented as being "composed of rare and precious substances brought from the four corners of the earth, carried seven times across the Great Desert of Saharah on the backs of fourteen camels, and brought across the Atlantic Ocean on two Ships." It is a simple, mild, soothing Remedy, a perfect Specific for Catarrh and "Cold in the head," also for offensive Breath, Loss or Impairment of the Sense of smell, Tast or Hearing, Watering or Weak Eyes, Pain or Pressure in the Head, when caused, as they all not unfrequently are, by the violence of Catarrh.

We offer, in good faith, a standing Reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh that we cannot cure.
